

The Chamber to recognize local, business leaders

Staff report 2:22 a.m. PDT April 26, 2014

(Photo: Robert Churchill, Getty Images/iStockphoto)

The Chamber has announced the nominees to be recognized at its annual recognition luncheon to take place at 11 a.m. May 7 at the Silver Legacy Resort Casino in Reno.

Nominations include T.J. Day for this year's Raymond I. Smith award; Assistance League of Reno Sparks, Northern Nevada Hopes and Veterans Guest House for Nonprofit of the Year; CAMPO, Riverwalk Merchants Association and US Foods for Community Spirit award; Atlantis Casino Resort Spa, Heritage Bank and Office Depot for Business of the Year (large business); and A Master Mechanic, Camelot Party Rentals and Fingerprint for Business of the Year (small business). Member of the year also will be announced.

The Chamber also will recognize Lynn Tackman, who recently retired after 27 years with The Chamber.

Networking and registration begin at 11 a.m. and the event begins at 11:30 a.m. Tables of eight are $240 or individual tickets are available for $30 until noon on Friday. Tickets are limited and prices increase to $50 at the door. To register, visit www.thechambernv.org and click events or call The Chamber at 775-636-9550.