RENO, Nev. (KOLO) - One of the biggest fundraisers of the year for the Veterans Guest House is an on-air auction with great packages, lots of stories from guests, and lots of surprises. Join in the fun, and bid on some great packages that include Reno Aces luxury box, golf around town, season passes at Squaw Valley/Alpine Meadows, sporting events, spring cleaning, Night in the Country tickets, steakhouse dining, Reno Rodeo box seats, shopping around town, tailgating, and lots, lots more.

All packages are posted online.

Listen on air at News Talk 780 KOH, or stop by and donate to Atlantis Casino Resort Spa, in the Atrium, or call 775-335-4621 to bid on great packages, or donate online, or stay in your car and donate at the drive-thru donation station in the Atlantis parking lot on the west side of South Virginia Street.

The event is March 9 from noon until 6 p.m.

The Veterans Guest House is a Nevada 501(c)3 nonprofit corporation and provides United States Military service veterans and their families temporary overnight accommodations when receiving treatment at medical facilities in the Reno/Sparks area. It also accommodates veterans traveling to Reno for outpatient medical care. The majority of guests receive treatment at the Veterans Administration Medical Center.
