RENO, Nev. (KOLO) - Join the Veterans Guest House for a fun luncheon while honoring the women who are currently serving or have served in our country's military.

A champagne luncheon will feature the latest fashions modeled by women from all branches of the military. The 6th Annual Boots Meet Fashion, Fashion Meets Fun is set for Thursday, October 4 from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the Capri Ballroom at the Peppermill Resort Spa Casino.

The fashion show is sponsored by the Nevada Department of Veterans Services, Plumas Bank and AARP Nevada. Among the hosts will be Tabnie Dozier from KOLO 8 News Now.

The show will feature the latest styles from five local clothing stores: Joan Marie, Labels, Scheels, Way to Go Travel and J.Jill. The military women will be decked out in everything from sportswear to evening attire. A raffle and silent auction will include prizes to pamper and entertain. Attendees can also shop at local vendor booths including jewelry, hand-made candles, purses, wine and other fashion items.

Tickets are $50 per person for the champagne lunch and can be purchased by visiting veteransguesthouse.org, or by calling 775-324-6958, ext 14. Table sponsorships are available for $650 (table of 10). There is a limited number of event sponsorships available; please contact the above number for details
